

Membership Policy 2015

Introduction

The Scottish Recovery Consortium (SRC) is a recovery-orientated charity. We exist to build and promote recovery from addictions in Scotland using means and messages that are consistent with the values and practices of recovery from addictions.

History of SRC Membership

The SRC began to recruit members following its official launch in 2010. In 2013 the Board of the SRC elected to explore both membership and the legal structure of the organisation which led to a request to all members to either renew their commitment to the SRC or allow their membership to lapse in June 2013.

What is a Member?

Members form part of the legal body of the SRC and will also be central to our thought leadership on recovery from addiction. Our membership is drawn from individuals with a personal lived experience of;

- Recovery from addiction
- Family recovery from addiction
- Contributing to recovery orientated transformations to treatment services
- Contributing to recovery supportive transformations in public service and life.

SRC members will be expected to contribute to 2 meetings a year: the SRC annual general meeting and the SRC annual recovery strategy session.

How do you join the SRC as a Member?

SRC members will be invited by the existing board to join the organisation and will be asked to agree to the organisational ethos, vision and strategy as part of the condition of membership. SRC members will be invited to join in a personal capacity.

Renewal

Membership will be renewed on an annual basis.

Registered Supporters

For people interested in supporting the organisation and its aims but without the time to take action, we hold a register of supporters who are invited to the annual strategy session and the recovery walk.
